Dear Members and Friends,

*There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under heaven...
(Ecclesiastes 3: 1)*

The end of summer is a time of reflection and recommitment, and signals the approach of the highlights of the Society's annual celebrations. This spring we enjoyed luncheons where we have been inspired by speakers on topics of historical, moral, ethical and spiritual importance. In August, we joined in prayer that the legal profession might foster commitments to service of others and to the expansion of the rule of law, in the spirit of St. Thomas More's example of conscience at the heart of the practice of law, at a Red Mass for the members and guests of the American Bar Association. Thank you to celebrant Bishop Ignatius Wang and to our hosts Father Charles Kullmann and the Paulist fathers of Old Saint Mary's Cathedral and to the attending members of the society.

Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations. (Matthew 12:17-19)

Nell Jessup Newton, President and Dean of Hastings College of Law will be our Luncheon Speaker on September 20, 2007 at Noon at the Bankers Club, 52nd Floor, Bank of America Building, 555 California Street in San Francisco. Dean Jessup will enlighten us on the unique challenges to a Catholic administrator of one of California's distinguished schools of law, and its tradition of preparing generations of moral and ethical legal practitioners.

On October 18, 2007, Judge Carlos T. Bea will be honored with the Saint Thomas More Award for 2007 at our Red Mass and annual banquet. The Pastors Luncheon is on November 15, 2007 and on December 6, 2007, we will gather for Mass and luncheon with the 8th Grade Essayist

We hope you will join with us in each of these joyous celebrations. Please remember to visit the Society at <http://www.stthomasmore-sf.org>.

Pray for Peace

Hugh A. Donohoe
